BOROUGH MANAGER'S REPORT

G. Marthers stated that the Borough is working with 3 seniors from the Fairfield Area School District on their Senior Projects. Two of the seniors have approval from the Borough Council to build a small pavilion located in the Carroll Commons Park. The pavilion will be located in the area of where the volleyball court was, but will be closer to the walking path. The two individuals are trying to raise money for the cost of materials; the estimated cost of materials is three thousand dollars. Construction of the pavilion will be starting within the next 2-3 weeks, and the name that has been chosen is the "Veterans' Pavilion". The other project that the other individual is working on is planting trees in our Ranch Trail Park.
